★ 1SG STEVE KOWATCH ★

On August 20, 2025, Army Ranger 1SG Steve Kowatch was diagnosed with a Stage 3 Colorectal Cancer (Carcinoma). In October, Steve began treatment with 28 day of Radiation and oral Chemotherapy and in December he followed up with 4 months of Chemotherapy infusions with the intent to eradicate the cancer.

Steve served honorably for 26 years in the US Army. He served in many different Units, from Airborne, Light, and Mechanized Infantry formations to Heavy Armored Brigades, but spent the majority of his career with the 75th Ranger Regiment. He has been deployed on multiple occasions, participated in many Operations both in Peacetime and Combat, and has been awarded multiple awards and decorations. Steve retired on March 03, 2020 following his assignment with Lock Haven Army ROTC at Lock Haven University.

Steve currently resides in Lock Haven, PA with his wife Amy of 28 years, their 2 children Alex, and Lily. He and Amy continue their legacy of service to the community by volunteering and supporting Veterans organizations and programs, and Community projects.
